

S1 - 3 Broad General Education Course description for Technical

The four main areas of study are craft, design, engineering and graphics.

The practical activities in the Technical course offer young people the opportunity to develop:

- Problem solving skills
- Planning and organisational skills
- Creativity and innovation through ICT
- Skills in using tools, equipment, software and materials
- Skills in collaborating, leading and working with others
- Critical thinking
- Evaluating skills
- Presentation skills

